Suzi, I am sending you two things. One is the present draft of what I have put together, the second is the briefing document that we are putting together. I am open all day today, except from 10:30-12:00. So sometime this afternoon will work great.

Also pleased let me know if you have any draft documents for me to align my research.

Thanks, Jean. Based on my research I do have an idea for the EJ analytical approach. Would you want to discuss this Friday?

Are we making any progress on the sacred sites issues? We were just informed today that we are going to have to do Public Notice on the new EJ analysis. Thanks,
